

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

Ms. Suzette Betsill

Suzette Betsill, Deputy Director, 673d Force Support Squadron, Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Alaska. She supports the commander with responsibility of managing the joint base's largest and most diversified squadron with 1,300 joint personnel from 77 specialties. She is responsible for joint warfighter sustainment services, agile combat support, and family and community services that directly support joint base units, and that establish and sustain the quality of life and resilience of 45,000 personnel. She supports 42 core Air Force, Army, and joint mission support programs, operates 166 facilities, and leads management of an annual appropriated budget of $25.1M and $45.4M non-appropriated self-sustaining revenue and assets.

Ms. Betsill grew up in Lake Charles, Louisiana. She is married to J.A. "Tony" Betsill and they have five children and four grandchildren. She started her Civilian Career at RAF Lakenheath in Dec 1989 and has had numerous assignments. Her core is Manpower (Engineering) and has worked at Base level, MAJCOM, Air Staff, 2dMRS and Air National Guard.

EDUCATION/MILITARY

1985 Associates of Arts, Louisiana State University - Baton Rouge
1995 Manpower School, Keesler AFB, Mississippi
1999 Squadron Officers School, Air University, Maxwell AFB, Ala. (Residence)
2002 National Lewis University, Chicago, Illinois, Undergraduate Degree, BSM
2010 Air Command and Staff College, Air University, Maxwell AFB, Ala.
2010 Master of Military Art & Science, Air University, Maxwell AFB, Ala.
2013 Force Support Squadron Flight Leadership Course
2014 Civilian Personnel Management Course/Advance USAF Supervisor Course
2014 Military Personnel Management Course
2015 FSS Deputy Director/Operations Officer Course Curriculum Review/Re-Write
2015 Air Force Mortuary Officer's Course
2015 Force Support Strategies for Effective Leadership, Phase I, University of Tennessee, Haslam School of Business, Tenn.
2017 Force Support Strategies for Effective Leaders, Phase II, University of Tennessee, Haslam School of Business, Tenn.

(Current as of Oct 2018)