Add 8 cups of flour and 1 cup of baby oil. Mix together and have fun! Super soft sand with easy cleanup.

PARENT ACTIVITY UNDERSTANDING VOTING

Broaden your child's understanding of voting by practicing how to vote in secret.

Do this by having each family member decide by vote what meal will be prepared for lunch or dinner. Start by drawing or printing out two or three family favorite dishes. Next, create and use a secret ballot or have each family member privately place a small piece of paper by the picture of their favorite dish. Once complete follow up on how voting in secret is beneficial.

WHAT are you grateful - for? -

As told by the 2025
JBER Life! Marketing Team!

grateful adjective

feeling or showing an appreciation of kindness; thankful.

There are many reasons to be grateful.
Be it for family, grace,
community, opportunity,
connection, growth, pets,
dedication, persistence,
and so much more.
Take this time to think
what your response
would be to the same exact question.

- What are you personally grateful for in your life?
- How have you grown in the past year – month?
- Who has bettered or improved your life?
- What is something that has changed that is different than last year?

I am so grateful that I get to continue to grow in my community and my art. I am incredibly thankful to be reminded that I am capable time and time again. Be it from my family, my boyfriend, or my friends.

Ellen K.
Graphic
Designer

I am grateful for my two cats who are my entire world, as well as my brother who is a constant support in my ever changing life.

Shelby T.
Graphic
Designer

I am grateful for my husband and his dedication to our country and our family. I feel truly thankful to God for blessing us with a baby boy, whom we are joyfully preparing to welcome this December.

Erin K.
Operations
Clerk

I am grateful to my family for supporting me in what I do. I appreciate the team that I work with and they are talented and team players.

Jack Y.
Graphic
Designer

This year, I'm especially grateful for the positive changes in my life. My work team has been amazing, they have been very supportive, inspiring, and a true reminder of how important the right environment can be. I'm also incredibly thankful for my family, whose support and understanding have meant the world to me. Their presence has made this year even more meaningful.

Debbie M.
Sponsorship Coordinator

I am grateful for my friends and family. All of the people who stuck with me for all these years that were kind and generous were inspirational to my growth as a person. I would not be who I am now without their help and guidance, and I am excited to meet all the new people (and moose) in Alaska.

907.552.5435

MORE GOOD NEWS

FROM THE JBER AERO CLUB/FLIGHT TRAINING CENTER

There is a hidden gem on JBER. It is called the Aero Club and Flight Training Center (FTC). Service personnel can use their VA benefits to acquire FAA pilot certificates.

Over the last year, FTC has flown more flight hours than flown in the last 6 years. Some of these hours were flown by club members wishing to rent club aircraft for personal use.

However, most of the flight hours were flown by student pilots punching their "Golden Ticket" to the airlines. The Boeing Report predicts a pilot shortage over the next 20 years.

And flying is the ultimate rush.

So, now is the time to begin preparing for your post enlistment career in the airlines or pursuing a commission and undergraduate pilot training (UPT).

"BOEING REPORT-PILOT AND TECHNICIAN OUTLOOK 2025-2044"

"Global air travel demand is outpacing economic growth as markets have remained resilient. Effective training and an adequate supply of personnel remain critical to maintain the health, safety and prosperity of the global aviation ecosystem.

Long-term demand for newly qualified personnel remains strong, as 660,000 new pilots, 710,000 new maintenance technicians, and 1,000,000 new cabin crew members will be needed to fly and maintain the global commercial aviation fleet over the next 20 years."

The Alaska SeaLife Center generates and shares scientific knowledge to promote understanding and stewardship of Alaska's marine ecosystems. Members of both the local and scientific communities identified a need and expressed their support for an expanded research and public education facility in Seward. The concept remained a dream for years with periodic efforts to lobby the University and the Alaska Legislature for funding. The Alaska SeaLife Center is the only facility in Alaska that combines a public aquarium with marine research, education, and wildlife response. While primarily dedicated to marine research and education, the nonprofit Center is the only permanent marine mammal rescue and rehabilitation facility in the state. The Alaska SeaLife Center lies at "Mile 0" of the scenic Seward Highway on the shores of Resurrection Bay. Visitors have close encounters with puffins, octopus, harbor seals, sea lions, and other Alaska marine life while learning about the work our researchers conduct both in the field and in our laboratories. As our world, and more specifically the North Pacific, faces dramatic changes caused by environmental factors and human components, the Alaska SeaLife Center will continue to be instrumental in understanding and developing ways to maintain marine ecosystems.
