Why Join the Aero Club?

Aero clubs are recreational aviation clubs provided on Air Force installations to promote readiness and resiliency of service members. They provide them with an opportunity to support the Air Force mission; participate in professional aviation training programs in safe, low-cost aircraft operations; develop and maintain aeronautical skills; and develop awareness and appreciation of aviation.

Membership is open to Active Duty, Reserve, Guard, and Retired Military Members, DoD civilians, and their families.

For more information, contact the Aero Club at 907.552.5435, or Ralph Gibbs at donald.gibbs.4@us.af.mil
